- 1、 To provide students with learning spaces for after-school tutoring, academic discussions, and learning consultations, the National Taiwan University of Science and Technology has specially established regulations for using and managing learning discussion rooms (hereinafter referred to as the regulations).
- 2、 There are 3 learning discussion rooms on the 12th floor of the International Building and 2 learning discussion rooms in the basement of the library. Their functions and services are as follows:
 - (1) These learning discussion rooms are available for faculty and students for after-school tutoring, academic discussions, learning partner program, and other learning-related purposes. Any other non-learning activities are strictly prohibited.
 - (2) The learning partner program is available in the learning discussion rooms during designated times and is subject to “Learning Partner Program” regulations.
- 3、 Applicants and opening hours:
 - (1) Eligible applicants: Taiwan Tech faculty and students.
 - (2) Opening hours:
 - 【Regular Semester】
 - Monday to Friday 09:00-21:00
 - Saturday 13:00-21:00
 - Sunday 13:00-17:00
 - 【Summer & Winter Break】
 - Monday to Friday 09:00-17:00
 - Saturday and Sunday closed
 - (Note: closed on national holidays)
 - (3) To apply for using a learning discussion room, please make a reservation through the online reservation system.
 - (4) The reserved date is limited to within one month from the date of application.

- (5) The maximum time limit for each use is 2 hours, and each person can make a reservation for a maximum of 2 times per week.

4 、 Rules of use:

- (1) Please complete the registration by swiping the organizer's staff or student card on the on-site access control machine at the discussion room within 15 minutes after the scheduled appointment starts. Failure to check-in within the specified time will be considered a violation, and the system will automatically release the time slot for other users to borrow.
- (2) Users who have not entered the learning discussion room 15 minutes after the reserved time has started are deemed to give up the reservation. This will be counted as an instance of failure to cancel a reservation promptly, which impacts the usage rights of others.
- (3) Users who wish to cancel their reservation must cancel it through the system themselves no later than 10 minutes prior to the reserved time.
- (4) Borrowing, impersonating, misappropriating other people's documents or privately exchanging and transferring the reserved time slots is prohibited.
- (5) Personal belongings or valuables should be properly kept by individuals themselves. The Management Unit of the University shall not be responsible for any loss or damage incurred.
- (6) When using the learning discussion room, individuals should carefully inspect and handle the equipment. If any equipment malfunctions are discovered, please inform the Management Unit of the University to facilitate subsequent maintenance and to clarify liability; if any equipment is lost or damaged, the borrower shall be liable for compensation.
- (7) Eating, making excessive noise, or engaging in any other improper behavior is strictly prohibited in the learning discussion room. Please handle the equipment with care and keep the room clean.
- (8) When leaving the room after use, please tidy up the room, take away personal belongings and garbage, and remember to turn off the electrical appliances and close the doors and windows.
- (9) Using products that may compromise national information security (e.g., Chinese-branded software, hardware, and services) is strictly prohibited. If any device is found to have been hacked, please immediately turn off the power and notify the administrative officer for further handling.
- (10) For any inquiries related to the use of the learning discussion room, please refer to the following locations:
